GOALS

Since 2008, I became interested in web programming. Now this is more than a hobby, I'd like in the future that this hobby to become my job. I'd like to discover myself in web programming because I like to solve the problems at the front-end and back-end interfaces.

PECULIARITY/QUALITIES

Thorough, responsible, communicative, independent, goal-oriented, innovative, capable of working in a team or individual, I am non-conflicting.
